

NORMAL VS ADVANCED SENTENCES ABOUT WEATHER

Normal

VS

Advanced

It's very hot today.

The heat is scorching today.

It's cold outside.

The weather is freezing cold outside.

It's raining a lot.

It's pouring down heavily.

The sun is shining.

The sun is blazing brightly.

It's a windy day.

The winds are blowing strongly.

It might rain later.

It seems like rain is on the way.

It's snowing outside.

Snowflakes are gently falling outside.

The weather is nice.

The weather is pleasant and refreshing.

It's cloudy today.

The sky is filled with heavy clouds.

It's foggy in the morning.

A thick fog covers the morning air.

The storm is coming.

A fierce storm is approaching.

It's a little chilly outside.

There's a crisp chill in the air.

It's raining lightly.

A gentle drizzle is falling.

ADVANCED ENGLISH

SENTENCES ABOUT WEATHER

Normal

VS

Advanced

The wind is blowing hard.

The wind is roaring fiercely.

It's very humid today.

The air feels oppressively sticky.

The rain has stopped.

The rain has come to an end.

The sun is setting.

The sun is sinking below the horizon.

It's warm today.

The weather feels comfortably warm.

It's snowing heavily.

A heavy snowfall blankets the ground.

The sky is bright.

The sky is brilliantly clear.

It's stormy tonight.

Tonight is wild and stormy.

The wind is gentle.

A soft breeze is blowing.

It's partly cloudy today.

The sky is dotted with clouds.

It's raining now and then.

The rain is intermittent.

The snow is melting.

The snow is starting to thaw.

It's too hot to go outside.

The intense heat is unbearable.