

Dialogue Between Two Friends about School

A: Hi Sara, how was your school day today?

B: It was good. I started the morning with English class.

A: Really? We had maths first, and the homework was a bit difficult.

B: I also got a lot of homework in science. Have you finished yours?

A: Not yet. I will do it after lunch.

B: Same here. The science exam is next week, so I want to revise early.

A: Yes, I am a little nervous about that exam.

B: Don't worry. Our teacher explained everything clearly today.

A: True. She is one of the best teachers for this subject.

B: What other subjects did you have after break time?

A: We had history. The lesson was interesting but a bit long.

B: I had geography at that time. We learned about climate changes.

A: Sounds nice. What is your routine after school?

B: I usually rest for a while, then start my homework around 5 pm.

A: Good plan. I try to study before dinner, so I sleep early.

B: Let's study together this weekend to prepare well for the exams.

Dialogue Between Two Friends

About Homework

A: Hi Tom, did you finish the homework for maths?

B: Not yet. It was harder than I expected.

A: I agree. The last two questions were very confusing.

B: Did you ask anyone for help?

A: Yes, I asked my sister. She explained the formula.

B: That's good. I might need help too.

A: We can solve it together after school.

B: That would really help me.

A: Did you also get English homework?

B: Yes, we have to write a short paragraph.

A: I already started mine this morning.

B: Nice. I'll start mine later today.

A: Don't leave it too late.

B: I know. I want to finish everything before dinner.

A: Good plan. Working early makes it easier.

B: Yes, and it keeps the weekend free.

Dialogue Between Two Friends

About Exams

A: Hey Lily, are you ready for the science exam?

B: I am trying, but I still need to revise chapter four.

A: That chapter is a bit tricky.

B: Yes, especially the diagrams.

A: Our teacher said those will be important.

B: I know. I'm a little nervous about it.

A: Don't worry. You understood most of the lessons.

B: I hope so. Have you revised everything?

A: Almost. I still need to read the notes again.

B: Are you studying tonight?

A: Yes, for at least an hour.

B: I'll do the same after dinner.

A: Good idea. We can quiz each other tomorrow morning.

B: That's perfect. It will help us remember the key points.

A: Let's do our best.

B: Yes, we'll be ready.

Dialogue Between Two Friends

About Teachers or Subjects

A: Hi Mark, how was your English lesson today?

B: It was great. Our teacher explained everything very clearly.

A: She always makes the lessons fun.

B: I agree. English is becoming my favourite subject.

A: What about maths?

B: Maths is fine, but the new chapter is a bit tough.

A: Yes, the formulas are difficult to remember.

B: Our maths teacher gives good examples though.

A: True. He is strict, but he teaches well.

B: Which subject do you like the most?

A: I like history. The stories are interesting.

B: That's nice. I enjoy geography more.

A: Geography lessons are also fun.

B: Yes, especially when we learn about places around the world.

A: Good teachers make every subject easier.

B: That's completely true.

Dialogue Between Two Friends

About Daily Routine

A: Hi Emma, what is your school routine like these days?

B: I wake up at 6:30 am, get ready, and reach school by 8.

A: That's early. I reach around 8:30.

B: My first class is always maths.

A: Mine starts with English, which I like.

B: What do you usually do during break time?

A: I sit with my friends and eat a small snack.

B: Same here. It's a good time to relax.

A: After school, I go home and rest for a while.

B: I also take a short rest before homework.

A: When do you start studying?

B: Around 5 pm. It helps me stay organised.

A: I prefer studying before dinner.

B: That's a good habit.

A: Do you study on weekends too?

B: Only for an hour, just to stay updated.

